

TRICK TRANSLATION GUIDE

A close-up photograph of a man's face. A large black circle is superimposed over his eyes and mouth. Inside the circle, the text "what he says, what he means" is written in white and red. The man has a receding hairline and a goatee. He is wearing a dark blue t-shirt. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

TRICK TRANSLATION GUIDE

“I’d like to take pictures...

...so I can sell them on the Internet.”

After the flash goes off, you won't know what will happen to the photo. Protect your image like you protect your life.

“I won’t cum in your mouth...

...after it’s too late.”

With his hands holding your head, you can't push him off when he's already gushing. STDs can be transmitted orally.

“More money for barebacking...

...that you’ll need to spend on meds.”

You make a little bit more now, you'll spend much more later on meds and healthcare (even if you have insurance).

“Let me tie you up...

...so you have no choices.”

May sound sexy or fun, but what if he has a hidden agenda? Stay in control as long as it takes to build trust.

“You know me, can trust me...

...to lie.”

Can trust be bought? That is essentially the question. You are able to play the fantasy, but keep a handle on reality.

“Let’s get high...

...so that you won’t know what’s happening.”

When you're high, you give your trick chances to make decisions for you. Plus, is that hit better than making rent?

“You’re my first guy, so I can’t have anything...

...from another man.”

Chances are you're not his first sexual contact. STDs can be passed just as easily during straight sex as gay sex.

“I’ll pay you later...

...when I’ve already kicked you out.”

GET YOUR MONEY FIRST! Screwing is fine, getting screwed is not. It pays to play it safe and smart.
